

CHRON FILE

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 13, 1985

Mr. President:

Bud would like some guidance on two issues that he will discuss tomorrow with George Shultz in Vienna in preparation for a meeting with Gromyko. Bud dictated the attached memo today from Vienna.

John Poindexter

I feel very strongly that we should do no more to indicate we are begging for a meeting. We've invited them to a meeting in the U.S. (It's our turn) The ball is in their court. RR
